

Installations Engineer-Ground Source Heat Pumps/Waterwells

Key Purpose of the Role:

Service Engineer - Water Filtration and Ground Source Heat Pump role is a key to our business, the role involves you being allocated a van, and other Installation equipment for each project. As a Service Engineer ' Water Filtration and Ground Source Heat Pump', you need to be motivated and proactive individual with good organisational and communication skills who can multitask in a fast team-based environment. Exceptional communication skills are needed liaising with customers and coordinating our Ground Source Heat Pump and Water Borehole installations are properly installed to continue to operate efficiently for the whole of their operating life.

It is desirable if you have the following previous experience in:

- PVC and Copper pipework
- Water filtration and pumping
- A distinct advantage Boreholes and Ground Source
- Plumbing experience is essential along with an aptitude for problem solving with high standards of workmanship and a can do attitude.

We offer a great training and development programme for our colleagues and Training will be provided, for your continuous improvement.

A competitive salary is offered and an immediate start is available for this full-time, permanent position.

Driving licence required.

Responsibilities:

You will be allocated a van, phone, tools, uniform and other installation equipment for each project. As a Water Filtration and Pump engineer your responsibilities will include and is not limited to:

- Ensuring our customers always have an excellent Customer service experience with the Nicholls Borehole team.
- Deliver Great Customer service and experience to our clients - bring your personality to work and be personable and polite
- Read and understand site plans and schematics
- Order and track task specific materials and equipment
- Able to work both in a team and individually
- Installation of Boreholes
- Reporting of Boreholes
- Test Pumping for EA
- Able to keep clear and concise records. All documentation to be completed thoroughly to the company standards
- Be a clear and accurate coordinator, and have good customer facing skills
- Able to control stock and ensure levels are correct at all times
- Look after company property including van and tools
- A can-do Attitude is essential and being able to multitask and work under pressure
- Essential to be planned and organised and being able to work to tight time schedules. Good time keeping is essential
- Ensure company standards are delivered at all times, including being in work uniform and a presentable appearance.
- Be happy to travel and occasionally stay away from home when necessary
- Being able to prioritise and manage own day and adapt to different working situations and being part of a team

Skills and knowledge

Core competencies, knowledge and experience:

- Honesty / Integrity / Reliable / Team Player

- Have excellent interpersonal skills with clients, colleagues, other professionals and continually being a great communicator
- Excellent written and oral communication (written and verbal), Right First Time Approach
- Computer proficient
- Interest in geology, sustainability and the environment
- Ability to prioritise and be organised and being able to handle information accurately

Our most important goals:

- 1. Live the Nicholls values – Excellence, Teamwork, Professionalism, Pride, Commitment and Fun
- 2. Communication with the and NBH Teams and Client
- 3. Organisation of resources and materials/parts
- 4. Be proactive and plan ahead

Nicholls Countryside Construction Ltd are an equal opportunities employer

Job Types: Full-time, Permanent

Schedule:

- Holidays
- Monday to Friday
- No weekends
- Overtime

Supplemental pay types:

- Bonus scheme

Ability to commute/relocate:

- Billingshurst RH14 0LW: reliably commute or plan to relocate before starting work (required)

Experience:

- Plumbing: 1 year (preferred)

Licence/Certification:

- CSCS (preferred)
- Driving Licence (preferred)
- City & Guilds (preferred)

Application deadline: 30/09/2023